
The Social Issues in Computing Collection of books, journals, pamphlets, “zines,” and other print resources highlights the evolving hopes and fears sparked in the general populace and specific communities by the perceived promises and threats of the industry.

Composed by members of Radical Union. ILLIAC IV. Champaign-Urbana, IL: Radical Union 1970.

Cybernetic Revolution. Chicago: Chicago Third Wave Study Group, 1994; No. 1

Great Lakes Technocrat. Chicago, IL, v.3, n.11.

Inforwars, the Magazine. Austin, Tex: Free Speech Systems.

325. 325 Collective